

RURAL CITY COUNCIL News

Council highlights presented to the community on the last Friday of every month

And the winner is...

RESPARK THE PARK

We recently invited residents to help us give Apex Park, in Swan Hill a makeover.

Following feedback, we undertook a quick poll giving residents an opportunity to vote on their preferred playground elements. Over half of our respondents voted for playground option number three, with the primary colour green.

LITTLE ATHLETICS OPENING

New discuss/shotput cages at Little Athletics at Ken Harrison Reserve in Swan Hill are officially open.

THE NAPPY COLLECTIVE

Our Maternal and Child Health are striving to address hardship by joining a program called the Nappy Collective. They will now be a collection point for the Nappy Collective and community members can drop off nappy donations to our MCH Centres in Swan Hill - 154 Curlewis Street or 63 McCrae Street.

FREE GREEN WASTE WEEKEND

Disposal of green waste will be free of charge at the Swan Hill Landfill on Saturday, 28 October and Sunday, 29 October, and at Robinvale Landfill on Sunday, 29 October.

FAIRFAX FESTIVAL

Council extends our congratulations to 2023 Fairfax Festival participants, organisers guest artists and mentors on a fantastic series of inclusive and inspiring events.

BEYOND BRICKS AND MORTAR - HOUSING SUMMIT

This November, Council will host Beyond Bricks & Mortar Housing Summit in a bold move to tackle housing availability and affordability in our municipality. Find out more by visiting: <https://letstalk.swanhill.vic.gov.au/swan-hill-housing-summit>
