Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct, which incorporates the statutory requirements specified for a Code of Conduct in accordance with section 76C of the Local Government Act 1989, was originally adopted by resolution of the Swan Hill Rural City Council on Tuesday, 17 November 2009.

1. Introduction

Councillor Values

The Council undertakes to foster and uphold the following values in the exercise of its various powers and roles:

- Community engagement
- Leadership
- Fairness
- Accountability

As Councillors of Swan Hill Rural City Council we are committed to working together in the best interests of the people within our municipality, as well as discharging our responsibilities to the best of our skill and judgment.

While the Code of Conduct can be reviewed and amended at any time, it is mandatory for the Council to review and make any necessary amendments to its Councillor Code of Conduct within four months after the general election.

A Councillor Code of Conduct must include an internal resolution procedure for dealing with any alleged contraventions of the Code. A Council can apply sanctions to a Councillor who has been found to have contravened the Councillor Code of Conduct.

Failure by a Councillor to comply with the Council's internal resolution procedure, or failure to comply with a written direction given by the Council under section 81AB of the Act (sanctions for contravention of the Code), constitutes misconduct by a Councillor.

If a Councillor Conduct Panel determines a finding of misconduct against a Councillor, the Panel may apply further sanctions against that Councillor.

Within one month of any amendments to a Councillor Code of Conduct being approved, A Councillor must make a declaration stating they will abide by the Code of Conduct.

A declaration by a Councillor must be in writing and witnessed by the Chief Executive Officer.

Our commitment to working together constructively will enable us to achieve a sustainable community with a strong identity, the ability to work together for community cohesion, economic prosperity and sound environmental management in a manner that is consistent with our values.

2. Purpose of the Councillor Code of Conduct

The purpose of Local Government is to provide a system under which councils can perform the functions and exercise the powers conferred by or under the Local Government Act 1989 and any other Act for the peace, order and good government of their municipal districts.

Good governance is fundamental to a council being able to perform its purpose. Good governance relies on good working relations between Councillors.

This Code:

- Sets out the standards of conduct expected of elected representatives.
- Endeavours to foster good working relations between Councillors to enable Councillors to work together constructively and in the best interests of the local community.
- Mandates conduct that has been designed to build public confidence in the integrity of Local Government.

3. Background

Within four months after a general election, a Council must:

- a) Call a special meeting solely for the purpose of reviewing the Councillor Code of Conduct; and
- b) At that special meeting, approve any amendments to be made to the Councillor Code of Conduct determined by the Council to be necessary following the review of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

A copy of this Code of Conduct (as amended from time-to-time) must be:

- Given to each Councillor.
- Available for inspection at the Council office and any district offices.
- Published on Council's website.

From the 2016 Council elections, a person elected to be a Councillor is not capable of acting as a Councillor until that person has read the Councillor Code of Conduct and made a declaration stating that they will abide by the Councillor Code of Conduct.

It is the personal responsibility of Councillors to ensure they are conversant with this Code of Conduct and comply with the provisions.

Role of Mayor and Councillors

- e) Facilitate effective communication between the Council and the community.

The role of a Councillor does not include the performance of any functions that are specified as functions of the Chief Executive Officer under section 94A of the Act.

Section 73AA of the Act describes the functions of the Mayor as including:

As Councillors of Swan Hill Rural City Council, we undertake to comply with the various provisions of the Act and with this Code of Conduct. Councillors will respect their fellow Councillors and employees in the carrying out of their duties and will ensure that their interaction with employees, and their use of Council information, accords with Council's policies and legal requirements.

Section 76B of the Act sets out the primary principle of Councillor conduct as follows:

"It is the primary principle of Councillor conduct that in performing the role of a Councillor, a Councillor must:

- a) Act with integrity; and
- b) Impartially exercise his or her responsibilities in the interests of the local community; and
- c) Not improperly seek to confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person."

Section 76BA of the Act sets out the general principles of Councillor conduct as follows:

"In addition to acting in accordance with the primary principle of Councillor conduct specified in section 76B, in performing the role of a Councillor, a Councillor must:

We recognise that gifts equal to or above the gift disclosure threshold received in the twelve months prior to an election from a person or body that has a direct interest in a matter may give rise to an indirect interest because of receipt of an applicable gift.

Where we choose to do so, we will make it clear that such comments are of a personal view and does not represent the position of Council. We undertake to ensure that any such comments are devoid of comments that could reasonably be construed as being derogatory, offensive or insulting to any person.

Personal dealings with Council

When we deal with our Council in our private capacity (e.g. as a ratepayer, recipient of a Council service or applicant for a permit), we do not expect, nor will we request, preferential treatment in relation to any such private matter.

We will avoid any action that could lead Council staff or members of the public to believe that we are seeking preferential treatment.

For the purpose of this Code, direct interest, indirect interest and conflicts of interest, have the meanings specified in the Act³.

If a Councillor has a conflict of interest in a matter which is to be considered or discussed at a meeting of Council, special committee, an assembly of Councillors, an Audit Committee or a Section 223 Committee, the Councillor must, if he or she is attending the meeting, disclose the conflict of interest in accordance with the provisions of the Act (unless any of the exemptions apply).

- 6.6 If the Councillor considers that they may be unable to vote on a matter because of a conflict of interest, they will notify, as soon as possible, the Mayor or the Committee Chair, depending on whether the matter is to be considered by the Council, a special committee, or an assembly of Councillors, as well as the Chief Executive Officer⁵.

³ Direct Interests, Indirect Interests and Conflicts of Interest are defined in sections 77A, 77B, 78, 78A, 78B, 78C and 78D, which are included in the extract attached at Annex A.

⁴ Section 79B of the Act is included in the extract attached at Annex A.

⁵ This is to enable the Council administration to prepare resolution for Council consideration if it appears that a Ministerial exemption under section 80 of the Act may be required. An exemption may only be sought following a formal Council resolution

Other legislative requirements

The Act includes requirements in relation to Councillor eligibility, electoral conduct and the election period (caretaker period).

Alleged contraventions of these provisions are not to be dealt with by Council using the internal resolution procedure in this Code of Conduct. Allegations in relation to contravention of these provisions should be directed to the Victorian Electoral Commission or the Local Government Inspectorate, depending on the nature of the allegation, for investigation and any consequent action.

- 7.1 Primary Returns must be lodged by a Councillor within 30 days of election day or seven days of taking the oath of office [s.81(3)]. Note, the Act continues to provide that a re-elected Councillor does not have to submit a new Primary Return [s.81(3)].
- 7.2 Irrespective of the date the last Primary Return was submitted, Ordinary Returns must be submitted by a Councillor, a member of a special committee or a nominated officer twice a year: 30 June or within 40 days of 30 June; and 31 December or within 40 days of 31 December [s.81(5)].

- 7.5 The CEO must decide which members of staff, other than senior officers, who must lodge a return [s.81(1)].

- 7.7 The CEO must maintain a record of the names of persons who have inspected the register of interests. A Councillor, a member of a special committee or a nominated officer may inspect the record of names of people who have inspected their personal records [s.81(13A), (13B)].

8. Dispute Resolution

Before commencing any formal dispute resolution process, the Councillors who are parties to a dispute are expected to use their best endeavours to resolve the matter in a courteous and respectful manner between themselves. Where, after these endeavours have been exhausted, the matter still remains unresolved, the parties may resort to any or all of the Council's three phase dispute resolution process.

The Council's three phase dispute resolution process involves:

- Direct negotiation between the parties in dispute with the Mayor in attendance to provide guidance.
- External mediation by an independent mediator engaged by the Chief Executive Officer.
- An internal resolution procedure involving an independent arbiter.

Phase 1 - Direct Negotiation	Phase 2 - External Mediation	Phase 3 - Internal Resolution Procedure	Councillor Conduct Panel
Either or both parties may request in writing that the Mayor convene a meeting of both parties. If not resolved, either party can escalate to external mediation.	Application made in writing to the Principal Conduct Officer including name of Councillor and details of dispute. The Principal Conduct Officer will advise the Mayor and CEO of application. If external mediation is unable to resolve dispute, matter can be escalated to internal resolution procedure.	Application alleging breach of Councillor Code of Conduct submitted to Principal Conduct officer. Application must specify name of Councillor alleged to have breached Code, the relevant provision, evidence in support of allegation. Principal Conduct Officer will advise the Mayor and CEO of application and provide a copy of application to the alleged Councillor within two days of receipt. An independent arbiter will be appointed to hear the application. An arbiter will provide written statements of findings to Council, the applicant and the respondent.	An application for a Councillor Conduct Panel to make a finding of misconduct or serious misconduct must be made to the Principal Councillor Conduct Registrar. A Councillor who does not participate in internal resolution may be guilty of misconduct.

Phase 1 – Direct negotiation

Where Councillors who are in dispute have not been able to resolve the dispute between them, either (or both) party (parties) may request the Mayor to convene a meeting of the parties.

A dispute referred for direct negotiation may relate to:

- An interpersonal conflict between Councillors where the conflict is or is likely to affect the operations of the Council; or
- An alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The party requesting the direct negotiation meeting is to provide the Mayor with the name of the other Councillor and the details of the dispute in writing. The written request is to indicate that it is for a direct negotiation dispute resolution process. Where the request relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, the request must:

- Specify the name of the Councillor alleged to have contravened the Code.
- Specify the provision(s) of the Code that is alleged to have been contravened.
- Include evidence in support of the allegation.
- Name the Councillor appointed to be their representative where the request is made by a group of Councillors.
- Be signed and dated by the requestor or the requestor's representative.

The requestor is to notify the other party of the request and provide him or her with a copy of the written request either at the same time as it is provided to the Mayor or as soon as practicable thereafter.

The Mayor is to ascertain whether or not the other party is prepared to attend a direct negotiation meeting.

If the other party is not prepared to attend a meeting, the Mayor is to advise the requestor forthwith. No further action is required of the Mayor.

If the other party declines to participate in a meeting, this does not constitute a contravention of this Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the other party consents to a meeting, the Mayor is to convene a meeting of the parties at the earliest available opportunity. Unless one or both parties are unavailable, this should be within five working days of receiving the consent of the other party.

The Mayor may present the parties with guidelines, in advance of the meeting or at the meeting, to help facilitate the meeting.

The role of the Mayor at the meeting is to provide guidance to Councillors about what is expected of a Councillor including in relation to the role of a Councillor under section 65 of the Act, and the observation of the Councillor conduct principles and the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The Mayor is to document any agreement reached at the meeting. Copies of the agreement are to be provided to both parties. Where one party does not comply with the agreement, the other party has recourse to external mediation or the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the parties cannot resolve the dispute at the meeting, a further meeting may be convened with the consent of both parties. Where the dispute remains unresolved, either or both of the parties have recourse to external mediation or the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

Where the Mayor is a party to the dispute, the request is to be made to the Deputy Mayor (if any) or the immediate past Mayor. The Deputy Mayor or a Councillor agreed by both parties will perform the functions ascribed to the Mayor.

Phase 2 – External mediation

A Councillor, or a group of Councillors, may make an application for a dispute to be referred for external mediation, whether or not the dispute has been the subject of an application for direct negotiation.

An application made for a dispute to be referred for external mediation may relate to:

- An interpersonal conflict between Councillors where the conflict is or is likely to affect the operations of the Council; or
- An alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The applicant is to submit a written application to the Principal Conduct Officer setting out the name of the Councillor and the details of the dispute. The application is to indicate that the application is for an external mediation. Where the application relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, the application must:

- Specify the name of the Councillor alleged to have contravened the Code.
- Specify the provision(s) of the Code that is alleged to have been contravened.
- Include evidence in support of the allegation.
- Name the Councillor appointed to be their representative where the application is made by a group of Councillors.
- Be signed and dated by the applicant or the applicant's representative.

The applicant is to notify the other party of the request and provide him or her with a copy of the application either at the same time that it is submitted to the Principal Conduct Officer or as soon as practical thereafter.

The Principal Conduct Officer is to ascertain (in writing) whether or not the other party is prepared to attend an external mediation. If the other party declines to participate in an external mediation, he or she is to provide their reasons for doing so in writing to the Principal Conduct Officer. These reasons may be taken into account if the matter is, subsequently, the subject of an application for a Councillor Conduct Panel.

When the other party declines to participate in an external mediation, this does not constitute a contravention of this Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the other party agrees to participate in an external mediation, the Principal Conduct Officer is to advise the applicant, the Mayor and Chief Executive Officer forthwith.

The Chief Executive Officer is to engage the services of an external mediator to conduct the mediation at the earliest practicable opportunity.

The mediator is to document any agreement reached at the meeting. Copies of the agreement are to be provided to both parties. Where one party does not comply with the agreement, the other party has recourse to the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the parties cannot resolve the dispute at the meeting, a further meeting may be convened with the consent of both parties. Where the dispute remains unresolved, the applicant has recourse to the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

Phase 3 - Internal resolution procedure – Arbiter

A Councillor, or a group of Councillors, may make an application alleging that a Councillor has contravened this Councillor Code of Conduct. The application must:

- Specify the name of the Councillor alleged to have contravened the Code.
- Specify the provision(s) of the Code that is alleged to have been contravened.
- Include evidence in support of the allegation.
- Name the Councillor appointed to be their representative where the application is made by a group of Councillors.
- Be signed and dated by the applicant or the applicant's representative.

The application must be submitted to the Council's Principal Conduct Officer.

An applicant may withdraw an application for an internal resolution procedure. Once an application has been withdrawn, the same or a similar application relating to the same instance in relation to the respondent Councillor cannot be resubmitted by the applicant.

An application cannot be made for an internal resolution procedure during the election period for a general election. Any internal resolution procedure that is in progress is to be suspended during the election period for a general election.

If the respondent to an application for an internal resolution procedure is not returned to office as a Councillor at the next election, the application will lapse. If the respondent is returned to office in the election, the application may resume if:

- The application was made by the Council and the Council so resolves; or
- The application was made by a group of Councillors and any one (or more) of those Councillors who has been returned to office wishes to proceed with the application; or
- The applicant (individual Councillor) is returned to office and wishes to proceed with the application.

On receiving an application, the Principal Conduct Officer will:

- Advise the Mayor and CEO of the application without undue delay.
- Provide a copy of the application to the Councillor who is the subject of the allegation at the earliest practical opportunity, but not later than two working days from receipt of the application.
- Identify an arbiter to hear the application.
- Obtain from the arbiter written advice that they have no conflict of interest in relation to the Councillors involved.
- Notify the parties of the name of the proposed arbiter and provide them with the opportunity (two working days) to object to the person proposed to be the arbiter.
- Consider the grounds of any objection and appoint the proposed arbiter or identify another arbiter.
- Provide a copy of the application to the arbiter as soon as practicable after the opportunity for the parties to object to an arbiter has expired.
- After consultation with the arbiter, advise the applicant and the respondent of the time and place for the hearing.
- Attend the hearing(s) and assist the arbiter in the administration of the process.

In identifying an arbiter to hear the application, the Principal Conduct Officer must select an arbiter who is suitably independent and able to carry out the role of arbiter fairly.

The role of the arbiter is to:

- Consider applications alleging a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct by a Councillor.
- Make findings in relation to any application alleging a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, which the arbiter must give to the Council.
- Give a written statement of reasons supporting the findings to the Council at the same time as it gives its findings to the Council.
- Recommend an appropriate sanction or sanctions where the arbiter has found that a Councillor has contravened the Councillor Code of Conduct.

In considering an application alleging a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, an arbiter will:

- In consultation with the Principal Conduct Officer, fix a time and place to hear the application.
- Authorise the Principal Conduct Officer to formally notify the applicant and the respondent of the time and place of the hearing.
- Hold as many meetings he or she considers necessary to properly consider the application. The arbiter may hold a directions hearing.

- Have discretion to conduct the hearings he or she deems fit, while ensuring that the hearings are conducted with as little formality and technicality as due and proper consideration of the application allows.
- Ensure that the parties to and affected by an application are given an opportunity to be heard by the arbiter.
- Consider an application by a respondent to have legal representation at the hearing to ensure that the hearing is conducted fairly and may, in his or her absolute discretion, grant the application or deny the application.
- Ensure that the rules of natural justice are observed and applied in the hearing of the application.
- Ensure that the hearings are closed to the public.

Where an application to have legal representation is granted by an arbiter, the costs of the respondent's legal representation are to be borne by the respondent in their entirety.

An arbiter:

- May find that a Councillor, who is a respondent to an internal resolution procedure application, has not contravened the Code.
- May find that a Councillor, who is a respondent to an internal resolution procedure, has contravened the Code.
- Will suspend consideration of an internal resolution procedure during the election period for a general election.

The arbiter is to give a copy of his or her findings and the statement of reasons to the Council, the applicant and the respondent. At the same time the arbiter provides the findings and statement of reasons, he or she shall, where a Councillor has been found to have contravened the Code, recommend an appropriate sanction or sanctions for the contravention for consideration by the Council.

A copy of the arbiter's findings, statement of reasons and any recommended sanctions is to be submitted to the next ordinary meeting of Council for its consideration. If an arbiter has found that a contravention of the Code has occurred, the Council may, after considering the arbiter's findings, statement of reasons and recommendation on sanctions, give any or all of the following written directions to the Councillor:

- Direct the Councillor to make an apology in a form or manner specified by the Council.
- Direct the Councillor to not attend up to, but not exceeding, two meetings of Council (in respect of the next scheduled meetings of Council).
- Direct that, for a period of up to, but not exceeding, two months on a date specified by Council, the Councillor:
 - Be removed from any position where the Councillor represents the Council; and
 - To not chair or attend any advisory committee or special committee meeting or an assembly of Councillors or any other meeting specified in the direction.

.A Councillor who does not participate in the internal resolution procedure may be guilty of misconduct. The Act provides that misconduct by a Councillor means any of the following:

- a) Failure by a Councillor to comply with the Council's internal resolution procedure; or
- b) Failure by a Councillor to comply with a written direction given by the Council under section 81AB; or
- c) Repeated contravention of any of the Councillor conduct principles.

Allegations of misconduct are heard on application by a Councillor Conduct Panel.
